Of Those Tried 70 Per Cent Are Found Incompetent

Approximately 200 persons have been tried in Allen-co to determine their sanity since Feb. 9, 1921, records of probate court show.

Practically 70 per cent of the number have been committed to Toledo state hospital as result of the trials.

Mental afflictions seem to be on the increase in the court, officials say, but they point out that many more persons are brought into court for trial than was the case years ago, because there is now less prodigality against state institutions.

The record of the court shows 123 persons sent to Toledo in the last year; retained in Lima 10; committed to friends, 3; released to Gallipolis, 4; found feeble minded, 14.

Many of those committed to the institutions are of advanced age and have been kept at home, it is believed, because the relatives felt they would not be given good care at an institution.

With development of the modern hospital for the insane, it is possible for the state to care for the unfortunate in such a way as to make their life easier and in some cases effect a partial cure.

"TOUCHING" SONG CHARMS CHIEF

Lanker Endorses Bogus Check, Girl Clerk Cashes it

Police Chief T. A. Lanker and Miss Esther D. Heffner, clerk of the criminal court, are sadder and wiser today.

A check of $25, endorsed by the city law enforcement director and backed by the criminal court, tells the story.

On Oct. 18 police arrested U. S. Tardis, 204 O'Connor-st., on an indictment charge. The following day Judge Neil R. Poling fined him $15. Chief, so the story goes, made out a check of $25 payable to Chief Lanker, who endorsed the check. Miss Heffner paid the difference of $10 and the $25 draft was deposited in a local bank.

Thursday morning the bank broke the "bad news" to Miss Heffner and she in turn passed the word to Chief Lanker.

Lanker ordered an investigation. "It was just an oversight during the trial in court," Lanker said in a statement that his orders are not to cash any checks, not even pay checks.

"Guess I am out the $10 I gave Tardis," Miss Heffner said. Lanker says some one else will refund the $10.

FOUR ARE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED IN GUN BATTLE

BRAZIL, Ind. — Four men were seriously wounded in a gun battle between a citizens' posse and four city officers when the two groups opened fire on each other by mistake during a bandit hunt last night.

The two groups were hunting for a automobile which, it was believed, was driven by bank bandits. The posse met the city officers on an orchard on the outskirts of Cory. Rifles, revolvers and sawed shotguns were used in the battle.

The mistake was not discovered until both groups had emptied their guns.

KILLED IN BLAST — One man was killed and another injured when a Cornish mill at the Grassell Chemical Co. at Quaker Falls, near Marion, blew up early today. Aey was instantly killed and the other man is seriously injured.

One man lived in Lowellville, near the scene of the blast. Officials are unable to give the cause of the explosion or estimate the damage.

VALUES SOAR AS STOCK DECLINES

Strictly Fresh Grade Sells for 70 Cents a Dozen in Local Stores Wednesday—Demand for Canned and Storage Eggs Is on Increase

With strictly fresh eggs selling at 70 cents a dozen in a number of Lima grocery stores, possibility of a buyers' strike until egg production increases, loomed Thursday, according to a survey made by The Lima News.

Many housewives admitted they have ceased to use fresh eggs in making of cakes and other pastry, while quite a few stated they have either cut down the consumption of eggs or are using substitute foods.

With November the low month for egg production, the retail price of strictly fresh eggs has hit the high spot of the year, said Lima grocers. There is little prospect that the price will tumble in the near future, they fear.

70 CENTS A DOZEN — During a survey Thursday it was found that fresh eggs were bringing 70 cents in some stores, while other stores were selling them for prices ranging from 62 to 67 cents a dozen. One store, one of a chain of national stores, was selling fresh eggs for 60 cents, although the manager admitted he was not making any profit.

Management of one store selling eggs for 70 cents said he paid 62 cents wholesale. This did not include the cases, loss thru breakage and other expenses, he said.

High cost of fresh eggs has greatly stimulated the sale of first grade or candied eggs. This class of eggs is candied immediately before it is sent out to the retailer.

Candied eggs are selling in Lima stores for prices ranging from 39 to 45 cents a dozen. Storage eggs are selling from 33 to 35 cents a dozen. Little demand, however, is made for storage eggs.

SMALL PRODUCTION — County Farm Agent H. J. Ridge said the low production month is undoubtedly responsible for the high cost of fresh eggs today.

"In November laying hens take a vacation, and this is especially true with hens that have been good producers during the summer," Ridge said.

Here is an official table showing egg production with a good flock of hens and giving the average egg production per month: November, 5 eggs; December, 8; January, 10; February, 12; March, 15; April, 20; May, 21; June, 18; July, 17; August, 14; September, 11; October, 7.

Ridge said farmers are not holding their eggs but are bringing them into the city two and three times a week. Despite the fact that farmers are getting 45 and 50 cents a dozen for eggs, Ridge says they are not making more and in some instances not as much as the retailer on the dealer.

DEALERS ARRESTED — Eleven Dayton dealers were formally placed under arrest today, charged with selling storage eggs at the price of fresh ones. The dealers pleaded not guilty and will be arraigned in court, by which time it is expected that many more will have been arrested.

The arrests today are said to be but a part of the general drive against illicit charges for storage eggs, now on in Cincinnati and Dayton and other points.

The authorities back of the local drive say they are determined to put a stop to the practice if they have to arrest every grocer in the city.

BLAST KILLS NINE

Sugar Refinery in Louisiana Wrecked by Explosion

NEW IBERIA, La. — (Associated Press) — A terrific boiler explosion razed the Vida Sugar Refinery at Loreauville, ten miles east of here, late yesterday, killing at least nine persons and injuring fifteen others, five of them probably fatally. Three employees are missing. The plant was completely wrecked, causing an estimated loss of $100,000.

The killed were Sidney Broussard, nephew of Senator Edwin S. Broussard, manager of the refinery; Oscar Broussard, superintendent and two white and five negro employees.

The blast came without warning. A negro standing 500 yards away headed when struck by a piece of the boiler, and a male a quarter of a mile distant was killed in the same manner.

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUBS READY TO HELP MANY HOLIDAY SHOPPERS

All Records Broken in Disbursements, Bankers Announce

CHECKS READY NEXT WEEK

Many Institutions Operating This Form of Saving

Lima banks, which have been conducting Christmas savings clubs during the year, will close their clubs next Saturday and will have the club checks ready for distribution around December, according to statements made by the banks which have been conducting the clubs.

Some of the building and loan companies have not yet decided when they will close their clubs. The South Side Building & Loan Co. announces its club will close December 1 and the checks will be mailed on December 10.

LARGEST EVER — According to bank officials in charge of the savings clubs at the various banks, the total fund distributed this year will be larger than for any other previous year. Statements to this effect were made at the Old National Bank, First National Bank, Lima Trust Co. and the American Bank & Trust Co.

At the Dime Savings Bank it was stated that this is the first year that institution has conducted a Christmas savings club.

Not only the banks but the building and loan companies are preparing to distribute large sums of money this Christmas to those who have made weekly deposits towards the funds they want to use for their Christmas shopping.

GREAT INTEREST — "There has been greater interest in the club plan this year than ever before," said Earl Rohn, in charge of the club at the Old National Bank. Other bank officials gave the same answer.

While the banks will close their clubs Saturday and depositors are urged to make their last payments by that time, it is expected that several days will elapse before all the banks will be ready to announce the total amount of money they will distribute.

Practically all of this money will be spent among the Lima merchants and they are going to tell in The Lima News what they have to offer to the thrifty people who have been saving their money for 50 weeks to have funds for their Christmas shopping.

KILLED BY AUTO — J. J. Kelley, an employee of the Huddle Co. garage, was run down and killed here today by an automobile driven by Harry Huffman. The car was said to have been taken from another garage without leave.

LABOR PLEN IFUL — The supply of common labor for the first time in many months, exceeds the demand in practically all the central industrial places of Pennsylvania, reports of state employment of firms.

THESE BURGLARS KNOW HOW

Burglars who raided the Shulenberg grocery at Marbletown Wednesday night had evidently been reading up on ways and means. When they left the store after stealing $10, which had been hidden in the store, they strewn enough black pepper on their trail to effectively halt the use of bloodhounds. It is believed they watched while the money was being hidden.

AMERICAN IS HELD BY CHINESE

U. S. Demands Release of Missionary Captured by Bandits

SHANGHAI, China. — (Associated Press) — The American legation at Peking, according to word received here, has taken up with the Chinese government the case of E. W. Schmalzreid, the American missionary from Hunan province whose capture by bandits was announced early today. The legation, it is stated, has sent a note to the Chinese foreign office protesting against the failure of the authorities to protect missionaries and requesting every possible measure to secure Mr. Schmalzreid's release.

The advice announcing the missionary's capture said four women accompanying Schmalzreid were allowed to continue their journey.

HOME IN INDIANA — (Associated Press) — George E. Epp, executive secretary and treasurer of the Missionary Society of the Evangelical Church, said today that Dr. Elmer W. Schmalzreid, physician-missionary of the church in China, was in charge of an Evangelical hospital in Tungien. Dr. Schmalzreid's home was in La Gro, near Urbana, Wabash-co, Indiana. He is 35 years of age, a graduate of Northwestern University in 1911, Columbia University 1912 and Orange Memorial Hospital, 1919. He married Lena Mae Schroeder, of Geneva, N. Y., also of Northwestern College.

Dr. Schmalzreid and his wife went to China in 1916 and a year later was sent to the Tungien hospital, where he has since been located.

WILD FOUND GUILTY OF TATTOOING YOUNG WOMAN

CLEVELAND — Ruling on a motion for a new trial for James E. Wild was pending today, following his conviction on a charge of tattooing a woman in the tattooing of Miss Marie Bank, his former sweetheart.

Wild was given an indeterminate sentence in Mansfield reformatory after being found guilty late Wednesday by a jury of six women and six men.

SENATOR'S WIFE HOUSE HUNTING

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Mrs. Magnus Johnson, wife of the new senator from Minnesota, went house hunting today, just like "plain folks."

"We'd like to have a place where we could keep a cow," she said.

"I shall like Washington, I know, but I do love the farm. I've always worked, like the rest of the family, around our place. We had cows to milk and I helped milk them. Both the senator and I want to keep a cow here. City people probably will laugh at us, but we do love the country and country things."

MRS. STOKES WINS DIVORCE DECREE

Final Agreement Reached in all Phases of Litigation

MOTHER KEEPS CHILDREN

Wife Gets Money Settlement Drops Slander Suit

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy hotel man and his wife, Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, formerly of Denver, today ended their legal warfare of several years standing thru an agreement by which Mrs. Stokes was formerly granted a decree of separation.

At the same time Supreme Court Justice Wasservogel dismissed complaint in Stokes' suit for a divorce, which a jury recently refused to grant him on a retrial. The separation decree provided that Stokes should have access at all times to his children who are to remain in the custody of their mother, where they were placed by a Denver court.

The decree does not set forth the terms agreed upon for the support of Mrs. Stokes and her children, but merely confirms "an agreement" providing for such support.

SUITS DROPPED — Statements by opposing counsel made it clear that not only have the divorce and separation proceedings ended, but that Mrs. Stokes has relinquished her claim to dower and that suits for slander or libel brought by her against W. E. D. Stokes, Jr., her husband's son by his first marriage, have been dropped. As to the criminal proceedings pending in Chicago, they remain just where they were, in the hands of the prosecuting attorney of Cook county.

It was learned on good authority that a trust fund of $800,000 has been created. The income is to be used for the maintenance of Mrs. Stokes and her two children. Upon her death, the principal is to go to her children.

GIRL BEGINS SUIT AGAINST CITY

Accident Victim Asks $500 for Damage Due to Injury

Suit for $500 damages was filed against the city by Pauline Allen, 207 S. Metcalf-st. Thursday after failure of the city commissioners to reach a settlement with her for damages alleged to have been inflicted on her Sept. at the corner of Market-st. and the Public Square.

Two weeks ago she appeared before the city commissioners, served on City Manager Bingham Thursday morning reveals that Miss Allen claims that while she stood on the corner a bus drove up to discharge passengers. The wheels of the auto when they struck the iron grating on the curb tipped it up and it came down on her toes, smashing them. She alleges she was laid up for eight weeks and also that her earning capacity is lessened because she cannot stand on her feet to work.

Two weeks ago she appeared before the city commissioners and presented a claim for $500. This, she then said, would cover her loss of time and also doctor and hospital bills. The commissioners left the matter in the hands of City Solicitor Paul Landis to adjust.

TURKEYS PLENTIFUL FOR THANKSGIVING

WASHINGTON — The tradition of turkey as the piece de resistance on the Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner table is in little danger this year, as far as the supply is concerned.

Department of agriculture reports made public today show that, in addition to cold storage stocks of 5,000,000 pounds carried over from last year, the new crop is exceptionally heavy in Texas and large in Maryland and Virginia, while turkeys are being raised in considerable numbers for the first time in many northern sections.

The large storage supply of turkeys, which is two and a half times the amount carried over from the preceding season, is attributed by the department to the curtailment of demand last year because of high prices.

BUNDAY NAMED

WASHINGTON — Appointment of Major General Omar Bundy to command the fifth army corps area with headquarters at Columbus, Ohio, was believed likely today, although orders making the appointment have not yet been issued, war department officials said.

LOCATION OF CAR TRACKS ARGUED

Metcalfe-st Viaduct Problems Aired at Conference

PAVING STREET DISCUSSED

County Commissioners Meeting With Railway Officials

Whether to erect the street car lines in the center of the S. Metcalfe-st viaduct or off to one side is the principal question under discussion at a meeting of the city and county commissioners and officials of the street railway company being held Thursday at the Ellis home.

Another question to come up will be that of paving Metcalfe-st from the south end of the present paving to the north end of the paving on the Watkinson-st.

Officials of the railway company are asking the county for a franchise to run their line beyond the city limits, the total distance of the proposed extension being about one mile. County commissioners are said to be favorable to the franchise proposition but they are not decided on the paving scheme. Metcalfe-st is a county road and has never been taken into the city and for this reason it was explained at city hall Thursday morning, the paving question is up to the county commissioners.

PART OF AGREEMENT
Extension of the street car lines beyond the city limits is to aid in the development of the industrial district in that section of the city and also is part of the agreement which brought the Union Tank Line Co into this city.

The cost of the proposed improvement, exclusive of the viaduct cost, will run close to $200,000 according to officials. City commissioners are inclined to favor the proposition of having the street car lines run at one side of the Metcalfe-st viaduct instead of down thru the center as the lines do on the streets of the city.

Representatives of the industrial area involved in the conference discussions, who were active in the preliminary arrangements for the Thursday conference included W. L. Farmers, of the street railway company, John Galvin of the Ohio Steel Foundry Co., and Emmett G. Curtin, St., for the Union Tank Line. Besides these the trustees of Shawnee-tp are also interested.

City officials said Thursday they were not invited to the preliminary conference held Monday at the court house.

WESTERN WORLD SPEED-CRAZY

Educator Says Schools Must Socialize People

Declaring that American civilization is speed-crazy and that there is great need for a social institution that will regulate the world in its speed rather than the speed, Professor H. O. Minnich, dean of Miami university, Oxford, asked the question as to whether the schools of the nation can restore a condition where all people can cooperate peacefully, in an address to parents, teachers and pupils at Central high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon. Dean Minnich took as his topic, "Schools as a Social Device." The address was a feature of American Education Week.

Dean Minnich said that of the 10 social agencies that exist, including the home, school, church, state, press, money, recreation and travel, the school occupies a position of 20 percent of the entire total. He said that the school is the only institution that will adjust the pace of the world, and balance society," Minnich said.

"We need more people who have faith in the school for only the school can bring about that correlation that will adjust the pace of the world, and balance society," Minnich said.

The educator from Miami university said it is difficult to get a pep meeting in Latin or a pep meeting in manual training, yet if a pep meeting is called for in the football team everyone is present. Years ago the speed for automobiles was 25 miles an hour, later a demand was made that it be raised to 30 miles and now it is 35 miles an hour in some counties.

Minnich, who praised the school as a great influence in American life, declared it can help in "the work of speeding up the moral life, and not the industrial for the latter activity will automatically take care of itself."

Three Drops Of Whisky Keeping Infant Alive

HOUSTON, Tex. — (United Press) — Marie Rogers, 19 days old and weighing just one pound, fought bravely for her life today.

The tiny infant, normal in every way but size, subsists on one ounce of milk a day.

Six drops of whisky in her bath and three drops in her milk is keeping the spark of life aglow, according to attending physicians.

Marie's mother, Mrs. G. W. Rogers is 15 years old. She was married in Shreveport, Louisiana, when she was 13.

The baby was born after the mother had been ill for four months with typhoid malaria.

So tiny is the babe that a ring which fits an ordinary man's little finger, will slip snugly over its chubby fist like a bracelet.

Physicians who are watching the case say that continued life of the "doll" baby is one of the strangest cases in medical history.

Man 74 Years Old Is "Rejuvenated" In 3 Weeks Without Gland Operation

Kansas Contractor Tells of Wonderful Results Obtained in Test of New Scientific Discovery.

Thomas J. Glascock, 74, well-known Kansas Contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered korex compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland treatments" as an invigorator and revitalizer.

"I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound, my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says:

"Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'young' again."

Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. W. Wood of New Orleans, past 60 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to as good, healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35. I am apparently as supple as at 25 and my eyesight is better than for years. I would not take $5,000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet rates as the quickest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and blood vessels, it brings gratifying benefits in a few days, according to thousands who have tested it.

"It is wonderful," writes a resident of Hollister, Cal. "In less than 24 hours you can feel it does the work. It makes one feel young as a young man. I am more than happy and glad I tried it." Another Californian says: "The compound is a world's wonder. I feel like I was about 25 and here I am nearly fifty!"

PRISON COUNT IN CASE DENIED

Ephraim Howard Held for Liquor Possession

SIX SECRET INDICTMENTS

Grand Jury Passes on 42 Matters During Session

An Allen-co grand jury which reported Wednesday refused for a second time to indict Ephraim Howard, Marion-tp farmer for manufacturing whisky.

Officers found a still running on Howard's place last July. Howard admits that he was making whisky. He pleaded guilty when arraigned. The law says the minimum penalty shall be nothing less than one year in the penitentiary and a $1,000 fine.

If indicted for and convicted of manufacture of whisky, Howard would have to go to prison, under the recent amendments to the state prohibition act.

CONFESSION IGNORED

But the jury ignored the manufacturing count and indicted him for possession of liquor. The maximum penalty for the offense is a $1,000 fine.

The grand jury, which met in September, could not agree on any indictment despite Howard's plea of guilty at arraignment, so continued the case.

The present grand jury was in session three days. During that period 81 witnesses testified, in connection with 42 cases. Thirteen indictments were returned of which six are secret. Nine cases were continued and 20 others ignored.

Indictments are Ephraim Howard, possession of liquor; William Brown, robbery; George Steinhelfer, assault with intent. G. W. Scott, statutory charge; Orla Milner, grand larceny; Vernon Lee, non support; James Miller, assault to rob.

JOSEPH SHELLEY DIES AFTER LONG SICKNESS

Joseph Shelley, 59, employee of the B. & O. for 25 years, died Wednesday noon at his home, 330 S. Pine-st, from complications after an illness of six months. He was a member of the B. of R. T. and the Maccabees and a member of St. John's Catholic church.

Shelley is survived by his widow; three sons, Daniel and Charles, residing at home and Joseph Shelley of E. Eureka-st; two daughters, Anna May Shelley at home and Mrs. Roy Fetherolf, of S. Jackson-st.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a. m. at St. John's Catholic church in charge of Rev. Plummans. Interment in Gethsemani.

THOMAS J. GLASCOCK

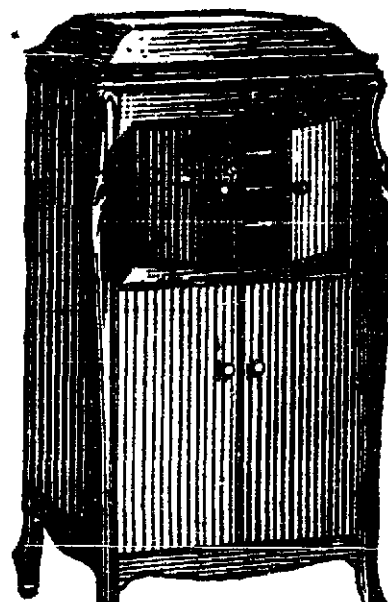

The compound has been tested in all parts of the country and has won the praises of thousands who suffered from nerve weakness, lessened or depleted vigor, neurasthenia, premature age, impaired glandular activity and lack of animation and vital force. Its effects seem to be virtually the same on both young and old. Physicians say the principal active ingredient of the compound gives speedy satisfaction in obstinate cases that defy all other treatments. Elderly people pronounce the discovery a real "fountain of youth."

Realizing that thousands of enfeebled, half-alive folk may consider such news "too good to be true," the American distributors have agreed to supply a double-strength treatment of the discovery on a guaranteed trial basis to everyone in need of such a preparation.

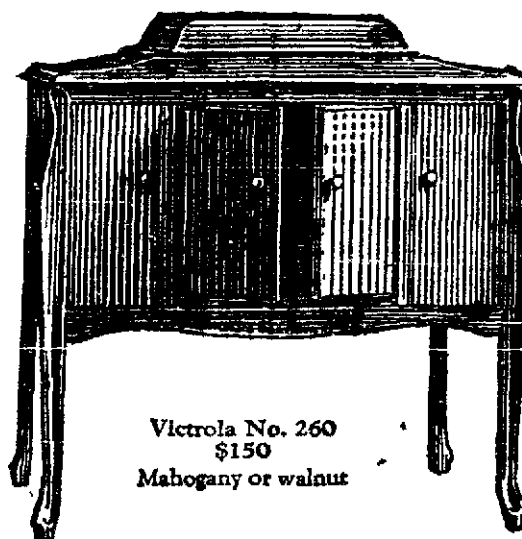

If you wish to test the compound under a money-back guarantee write in strict confidence to the Melton Laboratories, 3753 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., for a two-dollar treatment of korex compound, mailed in a plain sealed wrapper. You may enclose two dollars, or simply send your name, without money, and pay two dollars and postage on delivery, as you prefer. In either case, however, if you report within ten days that you are not satisfied, the laboratories will refund the purchase price upon request. These laboratories are nationally known and thoroughly reliable, so nobody need hesitate about accepting their guaranteed offer. — Adv.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness" and that lary feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

WOMAN ARRESTED ON BLACKMAIL CHARGE

PAIR THREATENED BY ACCUSERS

Medina-co Man Disappears Following Receipt of Letters

PRISONER MAKES CONFESSION

Admits Writing Notes to Husband and Wife

MEDINA. — (Associated Press) — Mrs. Lucille Renner, who had a signed statement admitting authorship of two threatening letters sent to Fred Thompson and his wife, was arrested this morning on a warrant charging blackmail. The warrant was sworn to by Sheriff Fred O. Roshon, of Medina-co, before Justice of the Peace W. P. Ainsworth here.

Mrs. Renner, 35, who lives on a farm near the Thompson farm, was to be given a hearing today before Justice Ainsworth.

Prosecutor Weber said the woman claimed Thompson wielded an influence, insidious in character, over her.

WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN Relatives of the missing man deny this emphatically, declaring the woman's entire confession to be a series of "trumped up charges aimed at inciting sympathy for her and with the view of justifying her action."

Nowhere in the confession is there any indication that might lead to the missing man's whereabouts. The woman claimed she had no idea as to where he had gone or what had befallen him. Friends of both Thompson and the woman believe, however, that knowledge of the confession, if he is alive and safe, may cause him to return to his home.

A written confession to which she affixes her signature in the presence of witnesses was made by the woman to Sheriff Fred O. Roshon, of Medina-co, after she had been faced by Miss Mary A. McGowan, a public stenographer, of Akron, to whom she admitted dictating the threatening letters to Thompson and his wife.

PLANE IS WRECKED

Five Naval Men Have Narrow Escape off California Coast

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — (Associated Press) — Five officers and enlisted men of the aircraft squadrons, battle fleet, crew of an F-5-L seaplane engaged in spotting torpedoes 25 miles off Point Loma, had a narrow escape from being blown to pieces when the seaplane was hit by a destroyer fire, exploded and sank in fifty fathoms of water yesterday. All five were rescued by the destroyer Kennedy after they had been swimming for more than twenty minutes. Chief Electrician Nelson was the only man injured.

The fire was started by the explosion of a smoke bomb about to be thrown from the moving plane to mark the spot where a spent torpedo fired by a destroyer was floating. Nelson was about to drop the bomb over the side when the rush of air carried it against the starboard propeller. The bomb was then hurled into the seaplane where it ignited. In a fraction of a second the seaplane was a mass of flames.

40,000 PENNSY EMPLOYEES ARE TO BE LAID OFF

PHILADELPHIA — Approximately 40,000 of the 77,000 men employed in the shops of the Pennsylvania railroad will be laid off for two weeks, or longer, effective at once, it was reported today.

Orders to close up a number of shops in the four regions of the Pennsylvania system, have been sent to Vice-presidents in Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis and Philadelphia. Only a few shops will remain open for actual current repair work.

When the shops reopen about 5,000 men will be cut from the staffs in each of the four regions, it was understood.

The decision to shut down shops came after a three-day conference between regional officials. A surplus of equipment and seasonal reduction of traffic are reasons given for the drastic labor cut.

Mother and one sister preceded her in death. She is survived by her father, step mother and three sisters, Mrs. J. H. McWeley, Mrs. Marion Priddy and Amanda Derlinger, also a host of relatives and friends. Dearest Thelma you have left us. And we will miss your smiling face. But we know you went up yonder. To a sweeter, brighter place.

Our hearts are filled with sadness, Because we loved you; But God wanted you in Heaven, So we had to let you go.

But we hope to meet you sweetheart. When it comes our time to go; And you went on just before us, To show us the way you know.

You bade not one a last farewell, You said goodbye to none; Your loving heart just ceased to beat, And before we knew it you were gone.

Perfect be thy rest, dear Thelma, It is sweet to call your name; In life we loved you, oh! so dearly, And in death we do the same.

ZOO STORK SHIES AT OATMEAL

Menagerie Meatless Days Not Successful at Leipzig

LEIPZIG — (Associated Press) — Oatmeal as a substitute for the carnivorous animals of the Leipzig zoo has been tried out with interesting but not particularly successful results. Meatless days reached the zoo here some months ago, because of the high prices, the principal outlay of the experiment being, it has been noted, a decided falling off in the visit of the stork.

The lions and tigers and wolves became thin and ill tempered, and howled a great deal at night and howled again in the morning right after breakfast when oatmeal day after day was dished out to them.

Furthermore, the fur of the animals, has failed to thicken up on the vegetarian diet, as it should in the fall to form the animal's winter covering, and the pets of most of the zoos are so thin that the caretakers say they are trying to conceive some form of blankets or overcoats for their pets to keep out the chilliness of January and February.

Only one little lion has appeared since oatmeal was put on the menu regularly in the place of meat, and the old mother lioness promptly ate it.

The bear, says the zoo superintendent, has not minded the oatmeal diet quite so much as some of the others of their neighbors. When the feeding of meat was suspended the bears faded away, and lost most of their playful manners which the regret of the regular Sunday assembling of Leipzig children, but nevertheless every now and then a little bear, or twins, appeared within the bear enclosures.

The Leipzig zoo is one of the main sources of supply for many German trained animal shows, and frequent shipments are made from here to the United States.

The animal keepers contend that if they had an abundance of cream and sugar to add to the oatmeal possibly the beasts would soon relish their meals once more and that the stork would again begin to appear at regular intervals.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IS FOUGHT

Campaign is Launched by the National Grange

PITTSBURG. — (Associated Press) — The fight of the National Grange against daylight saving is to be carried into New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New England thru an organization of state masters perfected at a session of the grange here today.

The movement is to be directed against existing laws for daylight savings and to fight state plans for the enactment of similar legislation. It also is to set on foot a campaign for the passage of a "new standard time law" so worded that it will be a federal statute with which the individual states cannot interfere.

At the executive session last night the grange adopted a number of resolutions which were made public this morning as follows:

Urging the enactment of a "truth in fabrics" act and asking similar legislation to prevent untruthful labeling and advertising of fertilizer, seeds and insecticides; asking the extension of the postal savings law to small communities; and further legislation for the protection of natural resources, especially forests.

Resolutions opposing the revival of free distribution of seeds and any weakening of the national prohibition law also were adopted.

RESERVE FLYING SYSTEM

ADOPTED BY U. S. NAVY

WASHINGTON — Plans for an aviation reserve system which will train between 150 and 200 expert flyers annually were announced today by the navy department. Embodied in the program is the basis of a new policy which, it is said, constitutes the first concrete step toward building the air service fleet to the strength required by modern tactics.

In each naval district "in which the public is sufficiently interested" there will be organized and maintained a reserve aviation unit capable of turning out a minimum of ten pilots a year. Administration and training will be under the command of the district in which the unit is located.

The commandant also will be authorized to obtain a suitable location for the hangars and warehouses.

FARM BUREAU TO PLAN MEETING

Annual Gathering to be Held at Memorial Hall

INSTITUTE GROUP MEETS

Golden Ridge Grange Planning Literary Contest

Meeting of the board of directors of the Allen-co Farm Bureau will be held Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the office of H. J. Ridge, county agent, at which time plans for the annual meeting will be discussed.

Annual meeting at which about 1,000 farmers and their wives attend will be held at Memorial Hall either during the latter part of December or early in January. Efforts will be made to bring an out-of-town speaker to address the meeting.

State aid and independent farmers' institute conference will be held at Memorial hall Saturday at 10 a. m. Institute officers, leaders and others interested are invited to attend. D. W. Galehouse, representative of the state institute department, will be the principal speaker.

Executive committee of the Elida Independent Institute met at Elida Tuesday and elected the following officers: President, D. C. Angberger; secretary, J. E. Pierson, and C. B. Culp, Cyrus Staver, J. R. John and S. E. Homer, on the executive committee.

Finance committee reported that sufficient funds had been promised to assure the success of the institute. C. W. May, W. W. Ditto, C. P. Culp, G. W. Little and J. E. Pierson are on the finance committee.

Members decided to cooperate with the Cairo farmers institute as far as speakers and dates are concerned. Elida institute will be held January 30 and 31.

President Angberger appointed the following committees in connection with the institute: Music, J. R. John; reception, J. E. Pierson, J. R. John and Miss Mina Huffer; luncheon, Mrs. Abba Brennenman, Mrs. Henry Dessenburg, Mrs. Steve Crites; program, Steve Brennenman, Cyrus Staver, J. R. John, Mrs. Charles Baxter.

Golden Ridge Grange of Jackson is planning a literary contest for December during which month four numbers will be given. Prize will be given for the person or group arranging the best number.

Program, independent of the contest, will be held Tuesday, November 27. Music by the grange quartet, reading by Martha Louise Herr, solo by Mrs. Mark Emerick; "Week in Columbus" by Mae Shulaw; talk by Mrs. T. J. Ludwig; reading by Edith Arnold; talk on problems of farmers' cooperative elevator, by C. C. Arnold; pumpkin pie relay and a supper will comprise the program.

Community meeting was held at Harrod high school Wednesday night. A good program of music, readings and a discussion on tuberculosis testing of cattle and dairy industry in general formed the program.

County Agent Ridge discussed the dairy industry, declaring dairy products have proved a most trustworthy form of farm cash income. In the depression of 1921 when income from crops had declined precipitately 53 per cent had, 1922 when dairying returned only 17 per cent less cash than in the peak year. From the low levels there have been gains so that dairy products this year promises to yield only 12 per cent less than the high returns of 1919; livestock 38 per cent less, and crops 40 per cent less.

Ridge presented the following table to show who gets the better money; farmer, per cent, 67.7; hauling, 4.3; creamery, 5.7; rail, way, 2.3; storage, 0.5; shrinkage, 0.7; receiver, jobber and broker, 5.0; packaging, 2.9; retailer, 9.9.

COMPTROLLER SENTENCED TO 60 DAYS IN JAIL

NEW YORK — Lawyers are busily engaged today on a plan by which they hope to save Comptroller Charles L. Craig from the sixty day jail sentence for contempt, given by Federal Judge Julius M. Mayer and affirmed by the United States supreme court.

WIDOWS OF RAIL UNION MEN TO RECEIVE PENSIONS

CLEVELAND — Widows of deceased pension members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, will be given pensions by that organization, beginning December 1, according to Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood.

A canvass of them showed 10,120 certificates had been issued, but that since the movement had been started by the B. of L. E., two years ago, 88 applicants had died, 171 had cancelled their certificates and one had been rejected, leaving an active membership of 9,860 or 140 below the required number of 10,000, Stone said.

"On December 1, there will be placed on pension 281 widows and they will commence to draw a fixed amount each month," Stone said.

FORD ENIGMA NOW NEAR SOLUTION

Dakota Convention to Answer Question, "Will He Run?"

MUST DECLARE, SAYS LAW

Only Avowed Candidates Can Figure in Primary

(By LAWRENCE MARTIN)
WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The country soon will know definitely whether Henry Ford will be a candidate for the presidency.

The South Dakota Democratic state convention which will be held Dec. 4, will end the uncertainty about Ford's intentions. If he does not end it himself before that.

Under South Dakota law, a declaration of intention must be filed by any person receiving even minority support in the state convention and who desires to figure in the presidential primary March 25. It now appears likely that the Democratic convention will be divided before Ford and McAdoo. County proposed convention held yesterday gave McAdoo a lead, also it was agreed that Ford's candidacy had something to do with throwing some delegates to McAdoo. McAdoo's decision will be filed promptly following the South Dakota convention and this will formally put him in the race.

Ford's position was uncertain due largely to conflicting reports and statements. Ford himself has been quoted as saying he did not desire the presidency and would not campaign for the nomination. During the campaign for county delegates in South Dakota, one of the workers issued a statement which he said was "official" to the effect that Ford would accept the nomination, if it was offered.

BOTH SIDES WATCH

Settlement of the question by an authoritative announcement such as a declaration in South Dakota, is awaited with great interest by the chief lieutenants and supporters of other candidates, both Republican and Democratic. For the campaign will be one thing with Ford in and another without him.

If he gets into the Democratic race, that eliminates him finally from the Republican contests. To his chance of getting the Republican nomination has never amounted to much, Ford probably will have some delegates in the Republican national convention.

Ford's decision is of tremendous importance to the McAdoo forces. They have counted all along on eventually getting the Ford stays out there at once will be a scramble to line up his delegates. The McAdoo group has the "inside track" here, but it really would be a free-for-all fight. If Ford stays in, McAdoo's workers will have to continue their present efforts to arrange for taking over the

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.—Adv.

Ford strength if it becomes apparent in the national convention that Ford cannot be nominated.

Another element which politicians are not overlooking is the fact that the Farmer-Labor party in South Dakota, is divided about equally between Ford and LaFollette. This is a reminder that the Ford might not run in the Democratic primary, his failure to enter there would not bar him as a third party candidate.

THEATRE TICKETS ARE BOOSTED TO $7 BECAUSE OF GRIDIRON BATTLE

NEW YORK—So much indignation has been expressed by army and navy officials over the increase of admission prices by Broadway theatres next Saturday night, the day on which the army and navy meet at the Polo Grounds in their annual football battle, that in some quarters it is believed the game will not be played in this city again.

The hoisted prices affect principally the student officers of the two service schools who have few opportunities to attend the theatre and certainly less money than undergraduates of civil institutions, and it is on their behalf that the army and navy officers have complained.

Prices for orchestra seats in 24 theatres, an official army canvass revealed, had been boosted from ten cents to $2, two $5.50 places increasing to 7.75. The investigation was instigated by Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson of Annapolis, who communicated his reports to Brigadier General Sladen, commandant at West Point.

Baltimore has been tentatively selected as the site of next year's game.

SCIENCE TACKLES SPECTRAL HEAT

Amazing Discoveries Are Made as to Warmth of Stars

OLD THEORIES OVERTURNED

Revolutionizing Knowledge of Physical Nature Seen

By WILLIAM J. LOSH.

WASHINGTON—(United Press.)—Amazing discoveries concerning the heat of the spectra of the stars, made by Dr. C. G. Abbot of the Smithsonian Institution at the Mt. Wilson, Cal., observatory, are announced here by the institution.

The details are of so technical a nature as virtually to defy understanding by the layman, the discoveries are believed certain to revolutionize present knowledge of the physical nature of the stars.

Abbot measured nine stars of all the principal types while spending the summer at Mt. Wilson, employing the Nichols radiometer, an instrument on the same principle as the little blackened vials which revolve in the sunlight in optician's windows, and the spectroscopic. These nine stars were Vega, Sirius, Capella, Procyon, Altair, Betelgeuse, Alpha Centauri and Beta Pegasus, ranging in types from blue to very red.

Results of these measurements overturned previous theories. Vega and Sirius, which are classified as blue-white hydrogen stars, nearly twice as hot as our sun, were found to be of greatly different types as regards heat. Vega showed a maximum spectral heat a great way further toward the violet end of the spectrum than Sirius, whose maximum heat was found not very much nearer the violet than that of the sun.

Still another remarkable discovery from the astrophysical point of view was that Rigel showed two spectral heat maxima.

Concerning his discoveries, Dr. Abbot said to the United Press:

"I do not know how I can make the significance of these discoveries plain to the man in the street. I guess I will have to depend on someone's statement that 'of all sciences the man in the street is more interested in astronomy and it has less to do with him than all'."

"However, such discoveries are just one more step forward in our conquest of the heavens. First, all we could do was look at the stars. Then we got the telescope. After that came stellar photography which broadened our field tremendously. Then came spectroscopy, and the interferometer, which measured distances. Later we discovered how to measure the relative brilliance of the stars and learned they are of two classes. Now we are measuring their heat, and I have just found out how to measure the heat in different parts of their spectra. We shall go further."

Abbot has measured virtually all the stars he can with his present instruments. This yielded a "crude," they measure star heat to the 100-millionth part of a degree. Instruments to measure the billionth part of a degree are under construction and may be used by Abbot in measuring smaller stars next summer.

This winter Abbot will devote much of his time to reducing the spectral heat values obtained at Mt. Wilson to centigrade scale values, more adequately to represent stellar values to the layman.

FATHER AND SON HELD ON KIDNAPING CHARGE

CHICAGO—Everett P. Leonard, president of the Servette Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and his son Willard, 18, were held by police here today on a charge of kidnaping Roger Naylor, president of the Sant Products Co., Chicago, and holding him prisoner for 26 days in an effort to collect an alleged debt of $9,000.

Leonard and his son were arrested here, while attempting to kidnap Naylor a second time, police said.

Naylor told police of the kidnaping when he was "lipped" his abductors were on their way "to get him again."

Naylor returned to Chicago six days ago after being held captive in the Leonard home at Chattanooga, he told police. He signed contracts and agreements to pay certain sums before the Leonards would release him, he declared.

TOLEDO IS BOMBED BY MAD MAN

Eight Buildings Are Wrecked by Internal Machines

CITY AT MANIAC'S MERCY

Police Force is Unable to Solve Mystery

TOLEDO—(Associated Press.)—

Laughing at the police and contemptuous of efforts to check his series of outrages, Toledo's maniac bomber was still at large today while horrified residents of the West End fearfully discussed his devastating operations and wondered where his deadly missile would fall.

The bomber's latest victim is Charles S. Yant. When Yant's home was partially wrecked last night it was the sixth day that the maniac had bombed. Yant, his wife and another woman smelled the burning bomb fuse and rushed from the house just as the blaze occurred. The house was damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars.

The city is at the mercy of the mad man. His after dusk forays have presented a mystery that will go down in the annals as one of the most baffling in the history of the state.

QUESTIONS CONFRONTED

Is he a young student mentally unsound and experimenting with explosives? Or is a versatile wizard compounding combustible chemicals in the secrecy of his laboratory and later skulking thru quiet residential streets to avenge a fancied grievance against society, are some of the questions police say they are confronted with.

Every one has a theory. Laborers, housewives, professional men and scientists have exchanged various hypotheses but the mystery remains unsolved.

There is no doubt that the bombings will be continued. After the first two or three attacks, police were hopeful that the maniac had become satiated and would desist. Cognizant of the psychological dangers of hysteria, the authorities were inclined to silence the cries of alarmists.

Detectives exerted every precaution, ran down wild clues, questioned suspects, canvassed scores of pharmacies and maintained nightly vigils near homes of persons whose suggestions prompted watching.

Today the identity of the bomber is as much of a puzzle as it was when he ventured forth on his first excursion. He is obviously scornful of the additional detail of plain clothes officers patrolling the West End and the risk that he incurs seems to mean nothing in his maniacal career.

"We're doing all we can," says Police Chief Harry Jennings, who has welcomed suggestions from every one. Critics of the police department deploring the operations of the bomber have insisted that there must be some medium of checking the outrages but have offered no remedy.

Men who have investigated the explosions, including that which damaged the home of the Rev. Patrick O'Brien, aged Catholic priest, and also the one in the Norwood Avenue Church of Christ are loath to consider the theory that a religious fanatic is responsible. They contend that if the terrorist is prompted by a religious mania, it takes the form of hatred for all creeds and religious organizations.

Householders whose lives and property have been assailed since the reign of terror was instituted are of diversified spiritual, fraternal and political affiliations.

REPORT OF HAMILTON'S BROKEN KNEE CONFIRMED BY LETTER FROM TOLEDO

Official report by Dr. T. J. Cunningham, of Toledo, on his medical examination of Charles Hamilton, alias Ralph Emmett Hay, charged with carrying concealed weapons and possession of burglar tools, substantiated the report received here that Hamilton has a broken knee.

In his letter to Judge Neil R. Poling, Dr. Cunningham stated it would be three or four weeks before the accused would be able to use his leg. The examination was made on Nov. 21.

Attorneys for the defendant appeared in criminal court Tuesday and arranged for postponement of the hearing. Preliminary hearing was first waived but after consideration Judge Poling set the case for 1:30 p. m. Friday at which time defense attorneys are expected to waive preliminary hearing and take the case before the grand jury.

Police are still holding the Marmion automobile confiscated with the arrest of Hamilton. Investigation of the license tags were issued for Ford cars, according to police who say one set of license was secured thru Belmont-co and the other in New York state.

BUS OWNER ESCAPES AS TOURING CAR HITS TREE

E. G. Griffiths, owner of the Lima-Cairo bus, had a narrow escape from injury at 5:45 a. m. Thursday when a touring car he was driving crashed into a tree at the intersection of West and Haller-sts after a collision with a Ford car, name of the driver unknown, police report.

Report of the accident states Griffiths was going south on West-st and the Ford going east on Haller-st rammed Griffiths' car, which turned and crashed into the tree, smashing the radiator and front fender and maiming the boy. The Ford was damaged slightly, the report states.

Sausage Costs 40 Cars of Cash

DOG BLUFFS LION AND WINS BRAVERY MEDAL

PRESCOTT, Ariz.—A hound pup has been awarded a medal for bravery. The dog, alone and unprotected recently held a mountain lion at bay in a Colorado river canyon until a party of hunters appeared. Ramsey Patterson, noted big game hunter of the Southwest, killed the lion with his revolver.

The lion had been driven to a flat rock by the pack of hounds but when it turned, snarling, all the pursuers except the one young dog drew back in terror. The lion, pup scrambled up on the rocks and growled at the lion, bluffing the menacing beast into worried inaction. The hunters arranged to attach a medal to the hound's collar.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST DOLLINGS MEN STAND

EATON—Common Pleas Judge A. C. Rinsinger today overruled all motions to quash the indictments returned by the Probate grand jury against William G. Benham and Dwight Harrison, officers of the R. L. Dollings Co., in connection with operation of the Dollings company.

In announcing his decision on the motions to quash the indictments, Judge Rinsinger fixed November 27 as the time limit for filing demurrers to the indictments.

In his decision, Judge Rinsinger said that the indictments were clear and "amply and reasonably informative" that "they fully tell what the state is talking about."

DR. COOK GIVEN 14 YEARS IN PRISON
Convicted of Fraud in Promoting Oil Producers' Association
13 OTHERS FOUND GUILTY
Explorer Receives Stinging Denunciation at Court's Hands

FORT WORTH, Texas — (Associated Press) — Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who first gained fame by his denied claims of discovery of the North Pole, faces a cell in the Tarrant county jail here today under sentence of fourteen years and eight months in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, and a fine of $12,000 and with what was said to have been the most stinging denunciation ever heard in a Texas court room ringing in his ears.

In jail with Dr. Cook are thirteen of his co-defendants found guilty late yesterday of using the mails to defraud in promoting the Petroleum Producers' Association. Included is E. J. Cox, one of the most colorful oil promoters Texas has known. Cox was sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary and fined $8,000.

Cox like Dr. Cook, encountered a tongue lashing by Judge John M. Killits, federal district judge.

"Cox, you have carried your pitcher to the well once too often," said the court. "You may justify the despicable business you are in, but decent people never will."

DR. COOK PLAYED

With what was termed by hearers a well-defined sneer in the court's voice, "so you can say nothing?" was hurled at this dejected figure which stood in compliance with Judge Killits' demand "Stand up, Cook," the usual remark to prisoners about to be sentenced and also an invitation to them to give reasons why sentence should not be imposed.

"You have come to the point where your peculiar personality fails you," Judge Killits accused as Dr. Cook stood leaning against the clerk's desk, his eyes sighted on the floor.

Robbing of widows and orphans, the aged and destitute was charged against the downcast explorer-promoter.

"Cook, have you no decency at all? Are you not haunted at night by these pitiable figures you have robbed? How can you sleep?" continued the judge.

"The twentieth century should be proud of Dr. Cook."

"History gave us Ananias and Sapphira. They are forgotten but we still have Dr. Cook."

ROTTY DEAL

"Cook," this deal of yours is so damnably rotten that it seems to me that your attorneys must have been forced to hold their handkerchiefs to their noses to have represented

you. It stinks to high heaven. The way I feel about you, I wish I were not so circumscribed. You should not be allowed to run at large at all.

"I know you have your ill gotten gains put away. Your counsel came to me and asked what your bond would be. I set it too low. They said you could not make it but it is a sheer waste of sense to say you can't. They must be under the spell of your peculiar personality."

If Dr. Cook appeals his case he must arrange bond of $75,000 perhaps the largest ever named in Texas. Even if he makes the bond, he must remain in jail until the record of the trial is perfected and approved by Judge Killits, which would require several weeks.

J. E. WATSON MAY ENTER RACE FOR PRESIDENCY

INDIANAPOLIS — James E. Watson, United States senator from Indiana, today threatened to enter the race for the Republican nomination for president.

Altho declaring he would make no formal announcement of his candidacy until he had conferred with party leaders in Washington, Watson indicated he might enter the field, "if for no other reason than to keep the Indiana delegation from going to Johnson."

"Johnson will not have Indiana's delegates without stiff opposition," Watson declared.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easy to prepare, and saves about 50¢.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Stomach Seemed Entirely Worn Out Before He Took the Plant Juice

PRAISES HERBAL MEDICINE

"I am 72 years old and had recently been in very poor health but I am feeling so much better since I have taken your Plant Juice medicine that I am able to do a good day's work now," writes Mr. Thomas J. Foster, of 1132 Queen street,

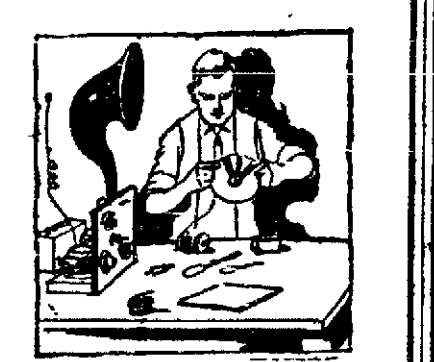

MR. THOMAS FOSTER

South Bend, Indiana, while talking with The Plant Juice Man recently. "For a long time I was employed at work that was confining," Mr. Foster continued, "and I had to eat my meals irregularly and as a result of these things I finally had a severe breakdown. I developed a terrible congestion in my chest and bronchial tubes; lost in weight and finally got so weak and run down that I had to give up my work. It seemed like my stomach was completely worn out and would fill up with gas so that I would bloat badly. I was so weak and so short of breath that the slightest kind of exercise—even walking a short distance—would break me down so that I would have to go to bed. I had bad aches in my back and sides and, to tell the truth, I felt so bad that I thought my days were over. "A friend told me about your Plant Juice and on his advice I started taking it and want to say that from the time I took the first few doses into my stomach, I began to improve. My stomach is so much better now that I can eat the heaviest kind of food and not suffer afterward from gas or bloating. The congestion in my bronchial tubes is greatly relieved; I have gained strength; the aches and pains in my back and sides have completely left me and, in short, I feel better than for years and am able to do a good day's work now. Your Plant Juice is all right and whenever I get a chance I always speak right out for it."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at Hutter's drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets; and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

FRANCE SPLIT ON COMPROMISE

Opposition to Agreement on German Affairs Develops

ATTACK AIMED AT PREMIER

Cost of Maintaining Entente Declared Too Dear

PARIS — (United Press) — The morning papers today emphasized that the agreement reached by the ambassadors' conference yesterday for notes to Germany dealing with restoration of control of German armaments and with the custody of the crown prince, is "purely temporary."

Its chief benefit was considered to be the prolongation of the Anglo-French entente.

The committee of foreign affairs of the chamber of deputies requested explanations from Premier Poincaré of his "concessions" to obtain the agreement.

Opposition members of the chamber were said to be planning a united offensive against the premier. They were strongly dissatisfied with the cost paid to maintain the Anglo-French entente.

Andre Tardieu, one of Poincaré's strong political opponents, made the agreement the subject for a bitter attack on "the gravest capitulation in four years."

Writing in the Echo National, he declared that the result of the latest maneuver crowned Poincaré's "paradoxical politics" reparations receipts, he pointed out, were zero, control of German armaments was non-existent and the crown prince was back in Germany.

WELCOMED BY JAVONON

—The agreement by which France and Britain once more pieced a common front to Germany is heartily welcomed here and not the least by the politicians who are glad to be freed at least temporarily from menacing trouble while the domestic electoral fight is in progress.

Some quarters credit Premier Poincaré with having taken a more complacent attitude because of a desire not to embarrass Prime Minister Baldwin during the election.

The Daily News which is hostile to both the British government and the French premier is the only paper to comment this morning. This newspaper contends that "it is ing to feel the effects of a growing moral isolation" and it scores the British government for its weakness and vacillating in handling the situation in the past.

GERMANY RELIEVED
BERLIN — (United Press) — Germany is "vastly relieved" by the nature of the notes agreed upon at the ambassadors' conference at Paris yesterday, it was said.

These notes, dealing with restoration of control of German military strength by an inter-allied mission under the treaty of Versailles and with the allied attitude toward return of the crown prince were thought to mean that nothing further would be done.

500 KOREANS MASSACRED.
PROTEST TO U. S. SAYS

WASHINGTON — Protest was filed with Secretary Hughes today by the friends of Korea in America, against what the society asserted was the massacre of some 500 Koreans and the imprisonment of 15,000 others during the recent earthquake and fire in Japan.

Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, president of the society who signed the protest, declared an eye witness whom he named as Captain Peterson, assistant dock superintendent at Yokohama, an American citizen, saw 200 Koreans bound hand and foot in groups of five, placed on an old junk, covered with oil and burned alive.

SCHOOLS MUST ASK FOR EXEMPTION OR PAY TAX ON ATHLETIC RECEIPTS

Warning was issued Thursday by J. C. Marsh, deputy collector of internal revenue, that schools which have entertainments and athletic events at which admissions are charged must file application for exemptions from the luxury taxes of the federal government which will be collected after the first of the year.

He said that if the money taken in, after expenses are paid, goes for charitable, educational or religious causes, and the schools make the proper application for exemptions, then the moneys so taken in are not taxed by the federal government. But if no application for the exemption is made the federal government will levy the tax and the schools will have to pay the money. "Now is the time of the year when the applications for the exemptions must be made," said Marsh Thursday.

Relative to the tax on admissions the federal tax law says, Marsh pointed out:

"No tax shall be levied under this title in respect to any admissions all the proceeds of which inure exclusively to the benefit of religious, educational, or charitable institutions, societies, or organizations, societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or exclusively to the benefit of organizations conducted for the sole purpose of maintaining symphony orchestras and receiving substantial support from voluntary contributions, none of the proceeds of which are distributed to members of such organizations, or exclusively to the benefit of persons in the military or naval forces of the United States, or admissions to agricultural fairs or non of the profits of which are distributed to stockholders or members of the association conducting the same."

THE LIMIT ATTAINED

IF anything more were needed to establish the fact to the satisfaction of the few remaining hopefuls that President Coolidge at some time would come over to the point of realization that the things American soldiers fought for in Europe cannot be attained until the United States takes its place in the councils of the world, for readjustment, the executive's announced decision against the return of the former Kaiser to Germany supplies it.

The president's position of a hands off policy should the head of the house of Hohenzollern hike back to his former domain from lonely Doorn, in Holland, no matter what the allied nations may do or propose to do, is proof to the World War veterans that the big task they performed is not wholly completed—will not be completed until America becomes a part and parcel of The League of Nations.

The executive takes the position that we have no interest in whether Wilhelm returns to Germany or stays in Holland, for the reason that we are not a party to the Versailles pact. More's the pity that we are not. It is not too late. In his Armistice Day address, former President Woodrow Wilson made it plain that he has not abandoned hope concerning the conscience of America finally being aroused to the true state of affairs.

America's part in the war was to aid in driving the Hohenzollerns from authority in Germany. We spent some $35,000,000,000, about $320 apiece for every person in America, and witnessed the sacrifice of nearly 100,000 of our boys killed, while many more thousands were wounded—to drive the mad war lord from Germany. Now our president professes to have no concern in the premises if Wilhelm should reestablish himself in the country where a people are struggling to find themselves under a new and more enlightened order.

SENSE OF VALUES

AMERICANS are quick to recognize greatness of all kinds—of character, of ability, of mentality, of accomplishment. But there is a tendency among us to make such recognition short-lived. Then, characteristic of our nervous nation, we quickly forget and pass on to another instance of greatness—another thrill.

That's why so many people skyrocket to greatness, in our eyes, and then lapse into the forgotten after a brief flash-in-the-pan period of glory. The nobody of yesterday is the warmly acknowledged idol of today. The idol of today is forgotten tomorrow.

No lasting veneration. One reason for this is that, as soon as anyone becomes "great", our failures and jealous paranooids get out the hammers and begin destroying.

Nationally we are badly in need of an enduring sense of values. That is to say, a sense of values that would be more than temporary snap judgment—a sense of values with perspective, so that greatness could be judged in relation to a long period of time rather than as merely a new act of World Vaudeville.

Our deficient sense of values explains why we so often pick the wrong leaders, embark on long ventures that end disastrously, and why we have needless upward and downward rushes of prices.

THE WORLD GROWS SMALLER

THE world becomes "smaller," countries more and more inter-dependent in economies—business relations. Frontiers are losing their significance except as political fences.

For instance, an international housing conference will be held in our country in 1924. Delegates will tour leading cities. It develops that we're no longer isolated even in the matter of housing. The Japanese quake proved that, the way it influenced activities and prices of our building trades.

AIRPLANE AND PARACHUTE

FRENCH girl, wearing a self-opening parachute weighing only 12 pounds, jumped from an airplane traveling 100 miles an hour. She landed gently, uninjured.

This may be the way flying will be made "safe." Passengers might wear parachutes in open-top planes so they would fall slowly if the machine plunged from under them. At any rate, one experimenter for safety like this French girl, Denyse Collin, is worth more to aviation's future than a dozen stunt fliers.

A Christmas present would cheer the street car conductor. His life is dull since longer skirts.

Give the policemen Christmas presents. Make friends of them. They may help you in a pinch.

Came a financier with a scheme for selling denatured paintings from noble brushes of past history. But saw nothing therein better than Mutt and Jeff financing. All the Late in the afternoon, to Sealt's Energine with some honest clothes, but old. Thence to the office, whence came Dean Minnich, of Miami University. The discourse being on higher education. And the higher you go, the better chance of being shot at. Successfully.

MOISTURE AND COMFORT IN VICIOUS CIRCLES

It is generally known that a cold damp atmosphere is much more chilling or penetrating, feels much colder, than a cold dry atmosphere. Likewise a hot moist climate is harder to bear than a hot dry climate. The thermometer alone does not tell how severe the cold.

The relative humidity, the comparative quantity of water vapor in the air has much to do with physical comfort in efficiency. Relative humidity is expressed in per centum. For instance, air with 70 per cent. humidity holds seven tenths as much moisture as it is capable of holding. The higher the temperature of the air the more moisture it is capable of holding.

Outdoor air at a temperature of zero Fahrenheit with a relative humidity of 50 per cent. will have a relative humidity of only 3 per cent when heated to 70 degrees F. This is drier than the driest climate known. A dry climate is seldom less than 30 per cent humid. So, when we think of a tropical atmosphere, and of pneumonia and the other respiratory infections which are tropical diseases, we must think of the great indoors of the average American home. Too warm, too dry, too bad.

Excessive dryness of the air in our houses, shops and other enclosures in the winter time causes excessive evaporation from the skin and mucous membranes, and this gives rise to the sense of chilliness which prompts us to turn on still more heat, causing still worse dryness, chilling for still more heat, etcetera, round and round, one of those vicious circles in which a hygienist delights.

Devices for supplying adequate moisture to the heated air of buildings are fairly practical for large buildings but too expensive for private homes. Such makeshifts as water boxes in furnaces, or evaporation attachments for radiators are of little or no value for this purpose.

Growing plants in porous pots (not glazed or metal jar) are much more effective, if kept in the room in numbers. Large palms, ferns or other plants tend to relieve and

WHEN A MAN'S A MAN

When a man's a man he doesn't lie, and he will not play the cheat. And he doesn't look with a scornful eye at the beggar on the street. And he doesn't brag of the things he's done, or talk of his lands or gold.

When a man's a man you will find, my son, that he's gentle with the old. When a man's a man you will find his friend not all of the chosen few. He never talks of the help he lends or the good deeds he may do. He never jeers with a woman's name, never sneers at the men who fail.

And a dog a pat from his hand may claim if only he wags his tail. When a man's a man he will never shirk the task that his hand may find. He is never too big for the long day's work, too busy to be kind; He never sneers at the faith you hold, never needless hurt he gives.

When a man's a man it is plainly told by the gentle way he lives.

Women Tell Each Other How They Have Been Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Perryburg, Ohio.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my sides all the time. I can't remember just how long I suffered, but it was for some time. One day I was talking with a lady I met on a car, and I told her how I was feeling and she said she had been just like I was with pains and nervous troubles, and she took the Vegetable Compound, and it cured her. So then I went and got some, and I certainly recommend it for it is good. Whenever I see any woman who is sick I try to get her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ADA FRICK, Route 3, Perryburg, Ohio.

In nearly every neighborhood in every town and city in this country there are women who have been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the treatment of ailments peculiar to their sex, and they take pleasure in passing the good word along to other women. Therefore, if you are troubled in this way, why not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial?

THIS LITTLE WORLD

LONDON

(BY MILTON BRONNER)
LONDON — (Special) — Of all differences between the English and Americans, the main one is teeth.
Our friends on this side of the pond are just a quarter of a century behind us in dental matters. They are just beginning to have tooth-brush drills in the public schools. And even yet the English have miles to go before they catch up with us in dental matters.
You see many a young woman away here who is good looking until she smiles. Then you see very bad teeth or gaping spaces.
Many only go to a dentist as a last resort when the pain is too great. And then they don't have the tooth "stopped," which is English for "filled," but have the offending tooth yanked out.
Good business for the dentists who give gas and also for those who specialize in false teeth.

A well-known American economist nearly had palpitation of the heart the other day. Said he to me: "You are always saying that life is as expensive on this side as it is in America, if not more so. Now, look here. I have a room and bath in a swell London hotel and it is only costing me $5.50 per day. I expressed polite skepticism. Whereupon he triumphantly shoved under my nose his room ticket. It was written "5-5-0." And the boob didn't know it was the guinea, or five pounds, five shillings.

When I told him he was running up a bill of $55 a day for a room and bath, he was nearly collapsed.
In Louisville, Kentucky, they used to boast that their great man, late Henry Watterson, wrote the worst hand in the world and that old printer was kept on his job

ly because he could read it. "Marse Henry" wrote:
I have just heard a better one about the famous Scotch professor and author—John Stuart Black. Only one compositor on an Edinburgh paper could decipher his manuscript. And even he was stumped one day. After much over one particularly bad paragraph he said:
"I couldn't set it, but if I had my pipes, mon, I could play it."

Druggist in southeast London d plays this sign:
"Don't let the Tincture of Peppermint get into your homes. I have a remedy."

GOOD health cannot be camouflaged by powder and rouge. The eyes will tell. That sparkle and clearness that denote good health will not be there if you are constipated. Mrs. Clara Proctor of Pottersville, Mich., had been told by doctors she had this and that disease, and one advised an operation, but she knew she had been constipated all her life so first tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. She avoided the operation and now feels better than she ever did. Likewise Mrs. William Appleton of Edgington, Pa., who was badly constipated and now looks her best again after using Syrup Pepsin.

WHY YOUR DOCTOR ADVISES YOU TO TAKE A GOOD TONIC AT THIS TIME OF THE YEAR

There are lots of people who seldom really feel their best at this time of the year. They catch cold easily; sleep does not refresh them as it ought to and they get up for work feeling drowsy, dull and tired—easily upset with indigestion, nervous and often constipated. Consequently they cannot do their best or feel their best.

FACE THESE FACTS! Build yourself up! Let Dr. Thacher's do for you what this vegetable tonic has done for countless numbers of men and women. Increase your appetite, and improve your digestion. Soothe and tone your overtaxed nerves. Wake up the sluggish liver, gently correct constipation and send purer, healthier blood coursing through your veins. This will nourish your body and give you greater strength, energy and vigor to keep you feeling fine the winter.

TRY THIS TONIC! Take a whole glassful of the tonic after the next few meals. Notice the quick difference in the way you eat, sleep and feel! The cost is small and your druggist will refund your money without question unless you are completely satisfied. Clip this and get Dr. Thacher's Tonic. Dr. Thacher's Tonic is sold in all drug stores in Lima and from leading drug stores in every city and town.

THREE BUDDIES—world war veterans, Floyd Williamson, Bill Short and Bryson Henry, brave soldiers and talented in stage ability, will make their debut, in "Vanities of 1924," at the Lyric, during the engagement of Mike Sacks, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They will be billed as "The American Legion Trio." This is their first appearance in the world of make believe, and they will undoubtedly be watched by crowds of eager friends and well wishers in their jump to a professional stage career. They are all Lima boys. Williamson resides on S. Main-st and Henry and Short live at 123 E. Eureka-st. If they make good, they will accompany Sacks and his show on its tour to the Pacific coast, and will be with it for the remainder of the season.

tude of humanity—in "The Eternal Three" it is the unusual case of an adopted son planning to elope with the beautiful young wife of his foster parent. The wife is Claire Windsor and never has she seemed more lovely than in this film, and the husband, the famous surgeon with a great love for humanity, is Hobart Bosworth.

Raymond Griffith as the foster son is a charming, fascinating fellow, probably not a villain, but with a weakness for pretty faces. On the way to elope with his foster father's bride he sustains an injury that necessitates a serious brain operation. The problem that confronts the surgeon—whether to let the knife slip or restore the lover to the doctor's own wife—is an engrossing one and forms the big sequence of the film. A comedy is an added feature.

MRS. WORKMAN ENTERTAINS AT HOME

MRS. HARRY A. WORKMAN welcomed a group of friends to her home 336 Lincoln-av. for luncheon and bridge on Thursday. Mrs. Workman entertained as a farewell compliment to Mrs. Glen R. Butler, who leaves within a few days for Sarasota, Fla., to reside.

During the luncheon the women were seated at small tables in the living and dining rooms of the house. Yellow and lavender predominated in the luncheon appointments and wicker baskets of yellow chrysanthemums were placed about the rooms. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:
I AM a reader of The Lima News and enjoy and learn so much from your column. I would like for you to answer something for me.
I went to Leontine with a girl friend. She was asked by a fellow for a date and this boy was with another fellow. She then asked me if I would go with him. I didn't know what to do. I think if a fellow wants a girl to accompany him, he should do the asking.
Well, I refused because I knew my mother would not be home so I couldn't call. This happened between Leontine and church. We met a fellow from school that we knew. He was going to church and this girl was with another fellow. She then called her mother and said she was staying with me and she knew I couldn't. This was not right I know. I came home by myself.
I like to be sociable with the fellows. I can't understand what is wrong with me. I never had what one would call a real date. I know one thing is that I don't know what to do but I'm trying to improve that. I'm not looking but I can't just get foolish like some girls do. I'm not forward enough but when I try to be, I get self-conscious. How can I overcome this? I'm eighteen years old and a senior this year.
Please try and help me. I hope I've made this clear so you can understand.

SPEECHLESS
CONCERNING THE Sunday evening affair, I see no reason if you know one of the boys that you speak of, why you shouldn't have gone with them. It really wasn't a date, was it? The evening was half over and you probably wouldn't have done much but walk home together. Of course, if you girls knew neither of those boys, then you did perfectly right in refusing to go with one of them. I agree with you that the boy should ask the girl for the date, if he knows her, but if he doesn't know her and his chum does, then I think it perfectly proper for his chum to do the asking.

By calling her mother and saying she was going to get church with you, instead of telling her she was going with a young man, I think she did something very wrong. Her mother probably wouldn't have cared if she had said she was going to be with the boy and she would have had to lie about it. However, that's not yours or my affair and let us let the mother and daughter settle it, shall we?
I've come to the conclusion that I'm not very good at reading handwriting correctly. When I was reading your letter, I thought it was a girl about 14 or 15 writing it and that you were perhaps a Freshman in High School, thinking entirely too much of the boys. But when I came to the close of your letter, and you wrote you were 18 years old and a senior, I was surprised. Most senior girls are grown up young ladies and I'm afraid you are just a bit too backward, aren't you?

You don't have to act "foolish" as you say the other girls do, those who have lots of dates. Don't do anything you don't approve of, just so you can be popular. Of course, display plenty of pep, be in for a good, clean good time and don't give people the impression that you put a "cold blanket" on the crowd. Forget yourself when you are out in a group of people, go right up, talk to them and develop an pleasing personality as possible.

Dear Miss Smart:
I would be very thankful if you can print a recipe for pudding, something that could be served at a Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner. I am going to have a nice Turkey dinner and so want to have a nice dinner.

HOUSE-WIFE
Below is an excellent pudding, it is called "Mayflower pudding."
One-half pound prunes, 2 cups cold water, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 cups boiling water, 1-2 cup walnut meats, 1-2 cup macaroni crumbs, juice of 1-2 lemon, whites of 2 eggs, 1 tsp. cinnamon, 1-2 pint whipping cream, 1-3 cup corn starch. Stem and wash prunes. Soak in cold water 1-2 hour. Add cinnamon and simmer 15 minutes. Dilute cornstarch in cold water and add to prune mixture. Cook 5 minutes. Add lemon juice, beaten egg whites and macaroni crumbs. Pour into molds and chill. Whip ready to serve cover with stiff whipped cream.

RHEUMATIC NEURITIS LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless.
Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenhu, has suffered for many years the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Green's Public Drug Store can supply you. Adv.

A MATING IN THE WILDS

BY OTTWEIL BINNS

BEHOLD HERE TODAY
Hubert Stane, discharged convict, while visiting a northern post of the Hudson Bay Company, meets an old friend, Gerald Ainley, who promises to visit at Stane's camp at midnight. Stane becomes acquainted with Minko, a beautiful Indian girl. At midnight Stane is attacked and carried off by Indians. He awakens to find himself in strange surroundings. Ainley, traveling with a governor of the company, falls in love with Helen Yardley, the governor's niece. Helen goes in search of her. Stane rescues Helen from the river when her canoe travels toward a dangerous waterfall.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
"Yes! That is the name. I remember my uncle mentioning it yesterday."

"Then you came down the main stream for a certainty, for the old fort stands on a lake that flows an outlet into this river, tho it is rather a long way from here. We will keep straight on. No doubt we shall strike either your uncle's camp or some search party presently."

As it happened the conclusion he reached was based on a miscalculation. The only waterway to old Fort Winagag that he knew was from the main river and up the stream that formed the outlet for the lake. But there was another that was reached by a short portage thru the woods from the subsidiary stream from which he turned aside, a waterway which fed the lake, and which cut off at least a hundred and twenty miles. Knowing nothing of this shorter route he naturally concluded that Helen Yardley's canoe had come down the main stream, and took the wrong course in the perfect assurance that it was the right one.

So hugging the left bank they passed the junction of the rivers, and a little further on crossed to the other side to seek shelter from a rising wind, under the high bank. And less than an hour later the canoe, carrying Gerald Ainley and his Indian, swept out of the tributary stream into the broader current, and they drove down-stream, unconscious that every stroke of the paddle was taking them further from the girl whom the sought.

CHAPTER VII
Stranded

It was high noon when Hubert Stane directed the nose of the canoe towards a landing place in the lee of a sand-bar, on the upper side of which was a pile of driftwood suitable for firing.

He lit a fire, prepared a wilderness meal of bacon and beans (the latter half-cooked and biscuit and coffee, and as they consumed it, he watched the river, a long stretch of which was visible.

The long day drew to its close and the camp they sought had not appeared; nor had any search-party materialized. As they pitched camp for the night, the doubt which all day had been in Stane's mind became a certainty.

"I am afraid we have made a mistake, Miss Yardley. You must have come down the other river." "I am sorry to give you all this trouble," said the girl contritely. "Please—please!" he answered in quick protest. "Believe me it is a pleasure to serve you, and with me a few days do not matter. I shall have enough of my own company before long."

"You live alone?" asked Helen. "I have an old Indian for company."

"And what do you do, if you will permit me to be so curious?" "Oh," he laughed. "I hunt. I pursue the elusive marten, and I experiment with vegetables. And this winter I am going to start a trapping line."

"But you are rich!" she cried. "You have no need to live in exile." "Yes," he answered with sudden bitterness. "I am rich. I suppose Ainley told you that. But exile is the only thing for me. You see a sojourn in Dartmoor spoils one for county society."

"Oh," she cried, protestingly. "I cannot believe that you—that you—"

"Thank you," he said as the girl broke off in confusion. "I cannot believe it myself. But twelve good men and true believed it; an expert in handwriting was most convincing, and if you had heard the judge—

"But you did not do it, Mr. Stane, I am sure of that."

"No," he answered. "I did not do the thing for which I suffered. But to prove my innocence is another matter."

"You have not given up the endeavor, I hope."

"No," I have a man at work in England, and I myself make small endeavors. Only the other day I thought that I— Apparently he remembered something, for he broke off sharply. "But why discuss the affair? It is only the world's small injustices which shows that the law, usually right, may go wrong occasionally."

"I suppose that the other night when you were waiting for Mr. Ainley, it was on this particular matter that you wished to see him?"

Stane made no reply, but sat looking in the fire, and the girl watching him, drew her own conclusion from his silence, a conclusion that was far from favorable to Gerald Ainley. She wondered what were the questions Stane had wished to ask her uncle's secretary, and which, as she was convinced, he had been at such pains to avoid.

Was it possible that her rescuer believed that his one-time friend had it in his power to prove his innocence of the crime for which he had suffered? All the indications seemed to point that way; and as she looked at the grave, thoughtful face, and the graying hair of the man who had saved her from death, she resolved that on the morrow, when she reached her uncle's camp, she would herself question Gerald Ainley upon the matter.

But, as events befell, the opportunity that the morrow was to bring was not given. For that night whilst she slept in the little tent, and Stane, wrapped in a blanket, slumbered on a bed of spruce boughs, perhaps half-a-dozen yards away, a man crept cautiously between the trees in the rear of the encampment, and stood looking at it with covetous eyes. He was a half-breed of evil countenance, and he carried an old trade gun, which he held ready for action whilst he surveyed the silent camp. His dark eyes fell on Stane sleeping in the open, and then looked towards the tent with a question in them. Evidently he was wondering how many travelers there were; and found the thought a deterrent one; for the once he lifted his gun and pointed it to the sleeping man he lowered it again, his eyes turning to the tent anew.

After a period of indecision, the intruder left the shadow of the trees, and crept quietly down to the camp, his gun still at the ready, and with his eyes fixed on the unconscious Stane. Moving very cautiously he reached the place where the canoe was beached, and looked down into it. A gleam of satisfaction came into his dark eyes as he saw a small sack of beans reposing in the stern, then again a covetous look came into them as their gaze shifted to the stores about the camp. But these were very near the sleeping man, and as the latter stirred in his sleep, the half-breed relinquished any thought of acquiring them. Stealthily he conveyed the canoe down to the water's edge, launched it, and then with a grin on his evil face as he gave a last look at the man in the blanket, he paddled away.

A full three-quarters of an hour later Stane awoke, and kicking aside the blankets, replenished the fire, and then went a little way upstream to bathe. At the end of half an hour he returned. His glance was towards the tent, the fly of which was still closed, then he looked round the camp and a puzzled look came on his face. There was something a little unfamiliar, something not present which—

"Great Scott! The canoe!"

At a run he covered the space between him and the camp, and as he looked around and saw that most of the stores reposed where he had placed them the previous night, relief surged in his heart.

"Thank heaven!"

"Mr. Stane, what is the matter? You look as if something had startled you."

He swung round instantly. Helen Yardley was standing at the tent door with a smile on her face.

"The matter is serious enough," he explained quickly. "Some one has stolen the canoe in the night."

"Then we are stranded!" asked the girl quickly.

"In a way—yes," he agreed. "But we are not in a desperate case. We have food, I have my rifle, and it will be possible to make a raft and float down the river until we meet your uncle's people."

"And if the current took control, Mr. Stane? Please believe me when I say I am not afraid—but I cannot help thinking of those falls you mentioned."

Stane looked doubtful.

"There are risks, of course," he said. "The alternative to the river is to tramp thru the woods."

"Then I vote for the alternative," replied Helen with a little laugh. "I've had my full of drifting like a fly caught in an eddy."

She said no more, but taking the kettle, walked down to the river, humming to herself a gay little chanson.

He watched her go, with a soft light gleaming in his hard blue eyes, then he turned and began to busy himself with preparations for breakfast. When the meal was finished, he went thru the stores and his personal possessions.

"We can't take them all," he explained. "I know my limit, and sixty pounds is as much as I can carry along if I am to travel steadily, without too many rests. We shall have to cache a goodish bit."

"You are forgetting me, aren't you?" asked the girl, quietly. "I'm fairly strong, you know."

"But—"

"I think I must insist," she interrupted with a smile. "You are doing all this for me, and quite apart from that, I shall be glad to know what the trail is like under real conditions."

Stane argued further, but in vain, and in the end the girl had her way, and took the trail with a pack of perhaps five and twenty pounds, partly made up of the clothes she had changed into after her rescue.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT, CONTINUED

"Certainly not," I emphatically asserted. "Even then that woman would not be content."

"Well, then, what all the city is talking about, Mrs. Prescott," she continued. "The end of the picture shows that instead of being the wife who palms off her illegitimate child upon the husband, it is the girl who palms off upon the wife the child of whom the husband is the father."

"Does the wife find it out?" I was surprised that my voice did not tremble.

"No, they fix that up very cleverly. The girl thinks she will tell the wife and in a way contrives to see her and the baby and she finds that the wife is so in love with the baby that she does not want to hurt her in such a grievous way as she would if she took the child from her, so she goes back to her work which, in this case, is in a millinery store, while the husband, in his heart knowing the child is his own and the wife always suspecting it is his, clasp hands over the little cradle. Neither of them ever tells the other."

"It must be a very human picture and they are pretty big people, aren't they, Mrs. Smithson," I said. "It is very probable that you and I could not be able to keep such a suspicion in our hearts as did that wife. What do you think you would do under the circumstances?"

"I certainly would ferret the matter out to the very bottom."

"But even if you found the child did belong to the man you would have no proof that he had been untrue to you since you married."

"No, but think of his depravity in foisting his own brat upon me."

"If you were childless, Mrs. Smithson, and it seems the woman in the picture was, I think he would have done you a great favor."

"Why, can't you see, Mrs. Prescott, that every time that man looked at the baby he would see the face of his mother and that mother would not be you." (I knew, little Marquise, that she was talking of my baby and not of the picture.)

"Perhaps, but did you never think that a man often looks into the faces of his children of whom another wife was the mother and still has enough love and to spare for the present wife, whom he may love better than even the mother of his children?"

"You would not speak in this way, Mrs. Prescott, unless you were sure of the parentage of your own baby."

"On the contrary, Mrs. Smithson, I am not at all sure. I have no knowledge whatever of the parents of John Alden Prescott Jr."

"You are a queer woman, Mrs. Prescott. Surely you are young and must expect to have other children. I cannot understand why you allowed your husband or why he would want to do it."

"Do what?"

"Name that child John Alden Prescott Jr. Suppose you had another boy. Would you not want him to bear his father's name?"

"I may be mistaken, Mrs. Smithson, but I do not believe I shall ever love more a child of my own than I do little Jack."

cannot hope ever to become strong and well again unless they have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revivifies worn-out, exhausted nerves and gives you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. At all drug stores. Beware of substitutes. The genuine has N. I. stamped on every tablet. Always insist on having the genuine.

Quiet Hovers Over Buckeye Camp As Time To Retrieve Lost Honors Draws Near

SNAPPY SPORTS

Threats were made at West Point academy by officials that after next Saturday, New York would never see another Army-Navy football game because of profiteering at the expense of the host of visitors.

The Urban Shocker case, come up before Judge Landis soon. Jones of the American League has declared it is simply a club rumpus. After viewing all particulars from every angle Judge Landis will decide whether he has jurisdiction. The fuss was caused by the old rule prohibiting the wives of players traveling with them on playing trips.

The Giants want a revision of the rules governing world's series games, particularly that part where assurances are not cited whereby expenses are not taken out in the division of receipts. They want their expenses paid.

Dempsey stoutly denies that he is dead; his evidence in this particular should be sufficient. Dempsey was not killed, self-evident because he says so. There is one thing however, if Kearney doesn't stop giving out fairy figures soon, regarding profits on speculations, the world will begin to class him along with the salaries of movie stars; then he'll have to go some. Presidents of railroads, insurance companies or a whack into the $100,000 class, are not worth while mentioning.

Sisler, new manager of St. Louis Americans, states that he expects to play during 1924. He will spend the winter in Los Angeles. His vision, he stated was continually on the improve and he is confident that he will be all right by the time the season begins.

Battling Siki got about $17,000 out of his late fight at Madison Square Garden. Norfolk's part of the purse amounted to over $11,000. On top of this and owing to his splendid deportment before and after the fight, Siki has been granted a permanent license to box in New York state.

Joe Lynch and Frankie Murray will meet in a contest at Boston Friday night, that is providing Lynch don't get cold feet and spring another excuse that something has happened. It's an even bet that this bird fight or he don't fight; just as the spirit moves. The boys are scheduled to box at 120 pounds.

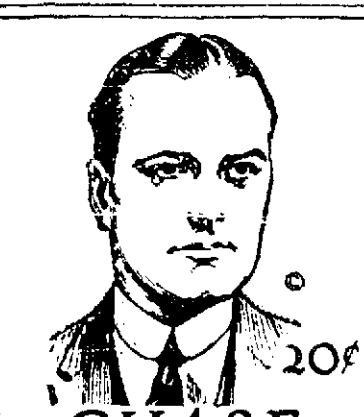

Frank Goddard, gets heavyweight champion of Great Britain, on claim of foul in his go with Jack Bloomfield, who hit Goddard while he was down. Bloomfield holds light heavyweight championship title.

Wilson is spunking up quite a bit, and is hard after a go with Greb. As Wilson lost the title to Greb in their go at the Polo Grounds last fall, he is naturally entitled to try again. It is not likely that the result would materially differ, but right is right. Wilson's acquired spunk is noticeable and to be commended, make these champs steat, that's the most particular and most popular part of the game.

NOW JUST WHAT DID MURPHY'S MESSAGE MEAN?

CHARLEY MURPHY, for mer owner of the Chicago Cubs, was a newspaperman in Cincinnati. So when Cincinnatians were getting up a dinner in honor of Miller Huggins, first Cincinnati man ever to manage a world championship team, Murphy was invited. Murphy didn't accept the invitation. Instead, he sent the following telegram to Garry Herrmann, team manager:

"Miller Huggins should be shot at sunrise or quartered and boiled in oil instead of being the guest of honor of a bunch of loyal National League fans after his dirty work against the Giants in the world series. It is disgraceful. Sorry I can't be with you."

NORTHERN GRID TEAM MEETS BLUFFTON

ADA, Ohio — (Special to The Lima News) — Ohio Northern's grid men began preparations Monday for the contest scheduled with Bluffton College at Bluffton Thursday afternoon. All the men reported in good shape notwithstanding the hard battle they had with Heidelberg Saturday.

As was expected, Northern got the long end of the score with the Tiffinites, 21-0. But Heidelberg, long rivals of the Polar Bears, did not give up the game without a hard fight.

Kerschner, Ada's star half, did the expected by playing wonderful football during his stay in the game. He receded off 50 yards on one of his runs and scored a touchdown, running up his total against Ohio Conference teams to thirty points. But he also accounted for another score by a 40 yard pass to Shank, who stepped across the goal line with no one near him.

Coach Newton will probably not start Kerschner against the Bluffton Collegians, for he wants to run no chance of losing him thru injury, as the big Wittenberg game will confront the Norsemen next week.

Bluffton athletic officials are making preparations for the big crowd of fans expected to witness the game.

AKRON-OHIO WESLEYAN

AKRON — (Special to The Lima News) — In the last game for the Akron university football eleven to be played here next Saturday afternoon, the blue and gold faces what will probably be its hardest opponent of the season, Ohio Wesleyan, undefeated leader of the Ohio conference title race, will be the final team to be met by the Rubber City eleven.

The Akron crew will again be weakened by the loss of three regulars, all of whom were unable to make the trip to Miami last week. Hayes Jenkins, halfback, is out with an injured leg; Jean Smith, fullback, is out with a bruised knee; and Ralph Brown, guard, is out with a cracked ankle. It had been hoped that these men would be in uniform this week, but indications were to the contrary.

Hard workouts were used to open the week's work and scrimmage was on the program for the remaining afternoons. Signal practice and fundamental work has been given a lot of time the first two days and then will continue thruout the week.

The changes made in the lineup for the Miami game last Saturday will hold for this week. "Zep" Schech will call signals in place of Thomas, with the other backfield positions filled with Verlin Jenkins and Carl Stump, fullbacks, and Peirle, fullback. On the line, Captain Edio Krogenow and Willard will play ends, Limbach and Stevens tackles, Spessard and Barnes, guards, and Mason, center.

Seven of the Akron squad members will play their last game. Captain Krogenow, Willard, Verlin Jenkins, Stump, Kniffin, Minnich, and Barnes, are seniors.

YALE LOOKS FORWARD TO GAME WITH HARVARD SATURDAY AS FEAST

(BY HENRY L. FARRELL)

NEW YORK — (United Press) — Considering that in 16 years Yale has not scored a touchdown on Harvard's field and that in the same period Yale has scored only one touchdown against Harvard any place, it can be realized with what hope for a feast Yale looks to the battle with Harvard next Saturday in Cambridge.

Yale seems to have one of the best teams in its history. Certainly it is the best eleven that has represented Yale since Cupid Black's fine team of 1916.

Harvard apparently has the worst team of years and Harvard feels at heart that the only chance for victory rests in the possibility that Yale will beat itself. Yale teams have done such things in the past.

Playing to the vanity of Yale in the hope of filling the team with too much confidence, Harvard is sending out "Gil Dobie" lamentations and Harvard men in New York maintain "it's five to two against us."

Yale not only feels sure of victory, but its fondest hope is to score more than 41 points, a record that Harvard holds over Yale since 1915. Because Yale has such a chance to smear Harvard, the Yale-Harvard game outranks the Army-Navy battle here Saturday in general interest.

Both games will be jammed to the capacity of the fields, but Harvard and Yale have the biggest following for the day.

Navy this year, is in much the same under-dog position of Harvard. Both the Cadets and the Midshipmen have been defeated this year, but the Army looks to be two touchdowns better than the Navy eleven.

The Cadets have a powerful backfield behind a great line, but soldiers are not as mentally alert as Yale, Cornell, Syracuse and the other leading eastern teams.

A lot of eastern interest will follow the Syracuse team to Nebraska. Despite its defeat last Saturday by Colgate, Syracuse is still one of the real teams
